

Siamonds to Australia.

There is no reason why diamonds should not be found in Australia as well as in South Africa, the geological conditions of many parts of both countries being very similar. Particulars have been received from Australia by actual researches, the Government of Queensland has felt justified in offering a reward of $1,000 to the first discoverer of a diamond in Australia. This is in addition, named the precise localities where there is reason to think the deposits may be found. This tempting inducement of course, will attract many, and, as no part of the colony is difficult of access, it may be assumed that the real truth will soon be known. There is nothing at present in the minds of the miners, nor will any one who remembers the incredulity with which the first reports of gold-fields were received be skeptical now concerning the new discovery.

This is an age of striking mineralogical revelations, and much more than the precious metals come to light. Recent American discoveries give us an extraordinary field of gold from some of the quartz reefs, and it is also said that most valuable deposits of opals have been discovered, though the fortuitous explorers of their crevices have not been themselves with the display of tantalizing specimens. There may be even greater discoveries to come, but it is in the mind that such rumors generally precede great discoveries, and probably, in so far as the mineral wealth is concerned, Australia is even still an almost virgin country.

Governor Geary Sues for Millions.

The Harrisburg Patriot-Ledger, Gov. Geary is at present the most important man in the country in the courts of California, which if it results favorably, will make him one of the millionaires of the land. When he was a member of the Legislature of Pennsylvania, he had at one time extensively engaged in land and financial speculations. It was not an uncommon thing for men to do in those days.

In 1850 he became a member of the Senate of San Francisco, and in 1852 he was elected to the Legislature of California, and there he remained until 1856, when he sold his seat to another.

He then went to the District for Clerks or Dying Officers, remaining at the bad and wretched hotel in San Francisco, and, after getting his money, he returned to the city, and, as he says, "was about to go home when he was arrested Saturday, when he will be open again at 10 p.m."
